PTSD Resources

NAMI Veterans & Active Duty Resource Center
NAMI Veterans & Active Duty Resource Center provides resources for veterans and active duty military members, as well as their families, friends, and advocates on topics related to mental health, such as: Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), health benefits and eligibility, and Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI).

National Center for PTSD (NCPTSD)
National Center for PTSD (NCPTSD) is the world's leading research and educational resource for PTSD and traumatic stress. We aim to advance the clinical care and social welfare of US Veterans through research, education and training on PTSD (post-traumatic stress syndrome) and stress-related disorders. PTSD is a mental health problem that some people develop after experiencing or witnessing a life-threatening event, like combat, a natural disaster, a car accident, or sexual assault. It's normal to have upsetting memories, feel on edge, or have trouble sleeping after this type of event. If symptoms last more than a few months, it may be PTSD. The good news is that there are effective treatments.

PTSD Alliance
PTSD Alliance: It is easy to feel alone when you or someone you care about is suffering from PTSD. But you are not alone. There is a lot of information available, and many dedicated people affiliated with our member organizations are accessible to answer your questions and direct you toward the variety of support services now available. The PTSD Alliance is made up of a group of professional and advocacy organizations that have joined forces to provide educational resources to individuals diagnosed with PTSD and their loved ones; those at risk for developing PTSD; and medical, healthcare and other frontline professionals.

VetChange
VetChange is a free, confidential online program for active duty military and Veterans who are concerned about their drinking following military deployment. It can help you build skills to better manage your drinking and PTSD symptoms.

VA Central Western Massachusetts Healthcare System
VA Central Western Massachusetts Healthcare System provides primary, specialty, and mental health care, including psychiatric, substance abuse and PTSD services, to a Veteran population in central and western Massachusetts of more than 120,000 men and women.
