National Alliance on Mental Illness

NAMI is the nation's largest grassroots mental health organization dedicated to building better lives for the millions of Americans affected by mental illness. Your local NAMI Affiliates and volunteer leaders work in communities across the country to raise awareness and provide essential and free education, advocacy, and support group programs.

NAMI Johnson County is a community that supports people with mental illness and their loved ones. The National Alliance on Mental Illness is dedicated to improving the lives of those affected by mental illness or their family members and friends. We provide programs of support, advocacy and education.

MHA is a powerful voice for healthy communities throughout the nation and offers information, referrals, and resources for individuals living with any type of mental illness. One of MHA's services includes online screening, which is one of the quickest and easiest ways to determine whether you are experiencing symptoms of a mental health condition. Mental health conditions, such as depression or anxiety, are real, common and treatable. And recovery is possible.

MHA of the Heartland is dedicated to promoting the mental health of the community, and improving the quality of life of persons with mental illness, through advocacy, education, and support. We are part of a network of affiliates that, combined, are a great force that collaborate for the good of mental health consumers, parents, advocates, and service providers. With more than 200 affiliates nationwide and more than 100 years in existence, we represent a growing movement of Americans who promote mental wellness for the health and well-being of the nation – everyday and in times of crisis.
